FOR THE WRIT OF REMOVAL TO SUPERIOR COURT OF RECORD

1. FOR NOW COMES THE COURT ON ITS OWN MOTION TO REVIEW THE ACTIONS of inferior Municipal Court of Atlanta, Raines Carter and Ryan Shepard.
2. On September 21st, 2017 notice was filed in this court and served on the inferior court that the cases numbered under the inferior court's statutory system of number as E02610884 had been removed to this superior court under the above titled action.
3. In spite of said notice to the inferior court, the inferior court through Raines Carter and Ryan Shepard have proceeded against the counterclaimant in spite of order to the inferior court ordering all and defendants to cease all actions against the claimants in said inferior court until such time as the issues before this court are settled.

4. Raines Carter and are in violation of the orders of this court and the law.
5. Defendants, which include Raines Carter and Ryan Shepard, have been served a copy of this action which challenges defendants authority over claimants named herein as claimants are sovereign above that of any and all public servants. It is the responsibility for those whose jurisdiction is challenged to prove said jurisdiction on the record and to proceed without jurisdiction is a treason. "We have no more right to decline the exercise of jurisdiction which is given, than to usurp that which is not given. The one or the other would be treason to the constitution." Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264, 6 Wheat. 265, 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821). "Jurisdiction can be challenged at any time and once challenged, cannot be assumed and must be decided." Basso v. Utah Power & Light Co., 495 F 2d 906, 910. "The United States Supreme Court has clearly, and repeatedly, held that any judge who acts without jurisdiction is engaged in an act of treason." U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 200, 216, 101, S. Ct. 471, 66 L.Ed. 2d 392, 406 (1980): Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. (6 Wheat) 264, 404, 5 L.Ed 257 (1821)
